

INFORMATION PROVIDERS INC.

Our business is helping you look at your business.

Privacy Statement

As a provider of information services to the insurance industry, Information Providers Inc. (IPI) is required to inform those doing business with us of our policies regarding privacy of personal information.

We maintain our customer and related policyholders' information private as required by law and our own company policies. This statement outlines our privacy practices at IPI.

Non-Public Information

We are provided and collect several types of non-public information to perform our insurance services for our customers. These include information that may have been provided to insurance carriers, agents and others involved with various insurance related transactions that occur before, during and after policy periods. This may include items such as premiums, payrolls, classifications as well as specifics about some other aspects of insurance policies and related experience.

We use physical, electronic and procedural methods to protect the non public information provided to us. We do not share any non-public personal information obtained in the course of our services except as required by law. Permitted disclosures include, for instance, providing information to our employees and in limited situations to unrelated third parties who need to know that information to assist us in providing services to our customers. In all such situations, we stress the confidential nature of the information being shared. Privacy, our professional ethics and our ability to provide quality services to the industry we serve is very important to us.
